

Benefits of Membership in The Independent Insurance Agents of Monroe County, Inc.

- ⇒ LUNCHEON PROGRAMS—Bi-monthly membership luncheons with insurance related speakers—some with CE credit. We also have an annual golf tournament! These gatherings provide a great forum for interaction with other insurance professionals.
- ⇒ CONTINUING EDUCATION—IIAMC sponsors, arranges and monitors CE courses in concert with IIABNY. Without our involvement, courses would not be held in Rochester.
- ⇒ INDEPENDENT EYE—Newsletter with general insurance news, committee reports, calendar of CE courses, meeting announcements and summaries, articles by fellow agents, and more...
- ⇒ LEGISLATIVE INVOLVEMENT—Our active Legislative Committee maintains ongoing communication with State Legislators throughout the year, and serves as a resource for legislators as they deal with insurance matters. We do maintain a voice in Albany! Each year a delegation of IIAMC members attend L-Day in Albany and we also host an annual luncheon with our legislators in Rochester.
- ⇒ DIRECTORY—A listing of all member agencies and member-licensed employees, local professional insurance organizations, insurance companies and addresses, legislators and their addresses, & DMV information.
- ⇒ MEMBERSHIP NETWORKING PROGRAMS—We sponsor social gatherings so that you may network with your fellow members.
- ⇒ PUBLIC RELATIONS—IIAMC assists several organizations and charities. We also make efforts to promote the value and work of Independent Insurance Agents.

As Independent Insurance Agents, the members of IIAMC are unified with common goals, common needs and common business philosophies.

The objectives of the IIAMC include:
“to uphold the principles and conserve the integrity of the American Agency System; to provide for discussion and exchange of views between members; to promote and encourage good public relations between the insuring public, the insurance companies and their representatives.”
